John Cartwright - CEO of AREF

John Cartwright is Chief Executive of AREF, a post he has held since late 2009. His responsibilities are to represent and promote the interests of members, promote best practice in fund governance and ensure the smooth running of the association.

Prior to this, John was with PRUPIM for nearly 35 years in a variety of roles; latterly as Head of Institutional and Retail Funds and a member of PRUPIM's Board and Investment Committee

Nick Brown - Finance Director at M&G

Nick has global responsibility for the finances of the M&G Real Estate business in the UK, Europe and Asia. He joined M&G Real Estate in 2014 and has 25 years of experience in finance and the built environment. Most recently, Nick held interim roles as Chief Financial Officer at Value Chain Lab Ltd and Head of Financial Planning at Wellcome Trust in London. He has also spent a number of years at Ernst and Young, including heading the Real Estate Due Diligence team. Nick is a Chartered Accountant and holds a degree in civil engineering.

Micheal Hornsby - Partner at EY

Michael Hornsby graduated from Imperial College of Science and Technology, University of London, in 1985 with a Bachelor of Science degree. Michael is EY's EMEIA Real Estate Funds Leader specialized in international real estate and private equity structures. He has 25 years of experience in audit and business advisory including the design operations and governance structures of a broad range of international collective investment vehicles. Michael has played a leading role in the development of the financial frameworks of such funds including NAV methodologies, accounting standards, valuation methodologies and performance measures through his role at ALFI and INREV. An engineer by background, he is also a member of the RICS and helped lead the development of the INREV integrated guidelines. He has recently published a paper on giving guidance on key aspects of fund governance.

Robert White - Partner at EY

Robert, 33, Irish, joined EY in 2005 having graduated from the National University of Ireland, Galway. Robert works in the Real Estate sector where he serves a number of large audit mandates. Through his years at EY, Robert completed a two year secondment to the EY London Practice and has worked extensively in the US and Asia. Robert has authored many articles in major publications, produced papers for various trade organizations and actively contributed to the EY Alternative Investment Club. Robert is a Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and a member of the Institut des Réviseurs d'Entreprises. Robert has a postgraduate certificate in real estate finance and is active on a number of groups within INREV and ALFI (Association of the Luxembourg Fund Industry).
